Perdido Key to Host 7th Annual Wine & Art Festival, May 13-14

Local festival will return to Villagio Town Center for 2-day event

Perdido Key, FLA May 2, 2016: The 7th annual Perdido Key Wine & Art Festival will be held at Villagio Town Center (13700 Perdido Key Drive) on May 13-14, 2016. The festival is being co-produced by Perdido Key Events and its' original host the Perdido Key Area Chamber of Commerce and Sponsored by this year by Vista Del Mar. Guests will have the chance to taste a variety of wines from different regions while enjoying local cuisine, music and arts.

On Friday night, May 13, we are bringing back the ever-popular "Taste of Perdido" for those wishing to enjoy a signature dish from local restaurants paired with an ideal wine. Participating restaurants and menus are: Jellyfish-Sushi; Ole River Bar-Wild Boar Tamales with White Cheddar Mole Sauce; Flora-Bama Yacht Club-Tuna Poke Pygmy Tacos; Perdido Sports Bar-Blackened Fish Tacos with Black Bean Salad; Legends Bar & Grille-Creole Seafood Pasta; Butch's Bistro-Deconstructed Lobster Roll; Driftwood Bar & Grille-Smoked Crap & Shrimp Stack; Ronin Sushi and Steak-Carpaccio Roll and Cafe Beignets-Beignets.

Tickets for Friday night's Taste of Perdido will be $30 per person from 5:30-8:30 pm. Jazz guitarist Pat McCann will be the featured performer and Jeff Spade will be the featured artist. Jeff is a resident of Pensacola and the owner of ACEART. His artistic mediums are one-of-a-kind acrylic paintings on canvas and reclaimed windows. Tickets for this evening must be purchased in advance via www.VisitPerdido.com

Saturday's festival will feature Arts & Crafts and Commercial vendors selling Jewelry, Photography, Artwork, Cosmetics, Windows, Body Scrubs, Soaps, Lotions, Boat Memberships, Hair Accessories, Coffee, Food, Beer, Scentsy and more. Tickets for Saturday's tastings are available on the www.VisitPerdido.com website or at the festival for $15, which includes a collectible wine glass and five tasting tickets. Additional tasting tickets will be available for $2, and all wines poured will be available for purchase by the bottle or case. Saturday's guests will be able to taste from 12-5 p.m. Visitors can also enjoy the live music of Justin Fobes, John Joiner and John Hart throughout the day and shop local vendors, including arts, crafts, food and much more.
