Achieve Escambia
Cradle to Career

On Wednesday, December 7th, Pen Air Federal Credit Union presented a gift commitment in the amount of $75,000 to Achieve Escambia at its corporate headquarters on Nine Mile Road. Achieve Escambia will receive the gift in $15,000 annual installments over a period of five years. This donation represents Pen Air's investment toward improving education and workforce outcomes in Escambia County.

"It is truly an honor to be involved with such an amazing initiative, and I am thrilled that Pen Air has partnered with Achieve Escambia," said Karen McCart, AVP of Training and Development for Pen Air and Operational Support Team member for Achieve Escambia. "We understand the critical need for education readiness and the cradle to career mission. Our efforts, enthusiasm and financial contribution will assist with shaping our future employees and leaders."

"We are very grateful to Pen Air for investing in Achieve Escambia with this long-term commitment," said Greg Voss, CEO of Achieve Escambia. "Pen Air's generosity helps us build the momentum needed to sustain our program, and shows how strongly they are dedicated to improving the educational outcomes of children in our community."

Achieve Escambia would like to thank Pen Air for joining us in our shared vision to empower every generation to achieve success, from cradle to career. We are grateful for the support of all of our partners, and would like to welcome Pen Air to the partnership!

Photo Caption: Pictured are representatives of Pen Air and Achieve Escambia. Left to right: Dana Mullins, Angie Betts, Carroll Scarborough, Greg Voss, David Lancaster, Stewart Ramsey, Anje Courtney, Pamela Hatt, and Maritza Woodfaulk.