

Pensacola Chamber plans senior awareness day

Seniors, caregivers, veterans, grandparents acting as custodians of grandchildren invited

PENSACOLA, Fla. – Mar. 4, 2016 – The Greater Pensacola Chamber’s Senior Voices Alliance will hold a senior awareness day on Friday, Apr. 15, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Vickrey Center, 2130 Summit Blvd. The purpose of this event is to educate, inform and empower seniors in the Pensacola community.

Attendees will have the opportunity to visit with more than 50 local vendors in the elder care arena. Vendors will provide free hearing checks, vision and bone density screens, fall prevention assessments and massages. There will also be a table designated to voter registration.

Senior Voices Alliance members created a resource toolkit that all attendees will receive at no cost. The publication includes information on senior care, housing and health, as well as tools for veterans and caregivers.

“The Chamber is deeply invested in our area’s aging seniors and veterans, and their caregivers,” said Sharyon Miller, the Chamber’s Director of Partner Development. “We truly appreciate our committed community partners who have helped us make our senior awareness day vision into a reality.”

About the Greater Pensacola Chamber

Founded in 1889, the Greater Pensacola Chamber is driven to create a climate of growth and success, to ensure economic prosperity and to enhance the quality of life in Greater Pensacola. The Pensacola Chamber Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, oversees Leadership Pensacola and completed Vision 2015, a five-year plan for job creation that brought more than 8,000 jobs to the area within three years. These initiatives take a strategic approach to regional growth and community building with the goal of building a healthier, better-educated workforce; continuing to advance the region’s economic positioning; and improving community infrastructure.
