Baptist Health Care Selected Clay Romano to Serve as Corporate Director of Facilities Management

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Nov. 3, 2016) Baptist Health Care (BHC) recently selected Clay Romano to serve as the Corporate Director of Facilities Management.

Clay is responsible for managing the day to day operations of the Medical Towers. This includes fiscal accountability, annual operating and capital budgets, and resource management of these medical office facilities. Clay will also assist with the management of leases, facility management of the physician and physical rehab offices, and management of our construction and renovation projects for numerous campus facilities.

Clay earned his bachelor of science in business administration degree in Professional Accountancy & Finance from the University of West Florida in 2006, and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in 2008.
