Baptist Health Care Selects Jo Wilson as Corporate Director of Risk Management

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Jan. 20, 2016) – Baptist Health Care (BHC) recently selected Jo Wilson to serve as the corporate director of risk management.

Jo is responsible for developing, coordinating and administering system-wide risk identification, risk reduction and error prevention programs as well as ensuring program compliance with agencies that regulate health care facilities. She works with all levels of leaders, physicians and team members to improve patient safety through education and guidance on issues impacting patient, visitor and team safety.

Jo is a licensed registered nurse, a licensed health care risk manager and is certified as a professional health care risk manager by the American Society of Healthcare Risk Managers, an affiliate of the American Hospital Association. She has more than 30 years of health care management experience and 10 years of risk and regulatory experience.

She earned her Bachelor of Science (BSN) in nursing from the University of Missouri and her Master of Science in nursing (MSN) from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.
