Celebrate Halloween at the National Naval Aviation Museum 10 a.m. Saturday, October 29

Pensacola, Fla. – (October 4, 2016) The National Naval Aviation Museum is hosting a free, fun-filled, family-friendly Halloween event on Saturday, Oct. 29. Ghouls and ghosts of all ages are invited to attend the 18th annual Halloween at the Museum from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Attendees are encouraged to dress up in costume and explore the Museum’s 350,000 square feet of exhibit space.

Trick-or-treat stations will be located throughout museum exhibits until candy supplies last and children will receive a free bag upon entering. Children dressed in costume will be admitted for free to “The Magic of Flight” in the Giant Screen Theater when accompanied by a paying adult. In addition, kids in costume are eligible for a “buy one, get one free” popcorn from the Giant Screen Theater refreshment counter.

Daring museum visitors can take rides on the “Superstition” motion-based simulator ride bundled with a custom dog tag for only $8, as well as a special discount to the Museum’s Flight Deck Store.

Blue Wahoos’ Kazoo, the Chick-fil-A Cow and Florida Forest Service’s Smoky Bear will make special appearances during the mascot meet-and-greet from 10 to 11 a.m. and 12 to 1 p.m. in the Blue Angels Atrium.

Visitors are encouraged to explore the National Flight Academy’s haunted ship tour for a frightful, friendly good time. Candy stations and snacks will be located in the mess deck until supplies last and haunted hallways will come alive onboard the virtual aircraft carrier, Ambition.

Admission to the Museum is free. For a complete list of upcoming events at the Museum, visit NavalAviationMuseum.org or call the Naval Aviation Museum Foundation at (850) 453-2389 or (800) 327-5002. The Naval Aviation Museum Foundation is the nonprofit, 501(c)(3) education and fundraising organization that supports the development of the National Naval Aviation Museum.

About the National Naval Aviation Museum

The National Naval Aviation Museum, one of TripAdvisor's "Top 25 Museums in the United States," features nearly 350,000 square feet of displays and is one of the world's largest aviation museums. Located aboard Pensacola Naval Air Station, the facility boasts more than 150 beautifully restored aircraft representing Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard aviation and is one of Florida's most visited museums. Be sure to visit Hangar Bay One, displaying aircraft of the post-WWII era including presidential helicopter, Marine One. Among the countless things to touch, see and experience are thrilling 3D and HD flight simulators and the new Blue Angels 4D Experience. Don't miss the drama and power of the new laser powered Giant Screen digital theater. The Cubi Bar Café offers a unique dining experience and the Flight Deck Store is the perfect place to find a souvenir that captures the spirit of Naval Aviation. Museum admission is FREE and open to the public. The National Naval Aviation Museum is open daily from 9 a.m.–5 p.m. For more information, visit www.NavalAviationMuseum.org.
