to benefit Health and Hope Clinic
Tuesday, November 28, 2017
6:00-8:00 PM

At the Health and Hope Clinic, 1718 East Olive Road, Pensacola, FL 32514

Pensacola, FL –Christmas at the Clinic will be held Tuesday, November 28th, 2017, 6:00-8:00 PM at the Health and Hope Clinic, 1718 E. Olive Road in Pensacola. We are pleased to welcome guest emcee Candy Cullerton, Cat Pak Morning Show Co-Host from Cat Country 98.7 and NewsRadio 92.3 FM. Live musical guests ‘A Joyful Noise’ and ‘Altarfront’ will be performing familiar and contemporary holiday praise and worship tunes. The evening will feature the Christmas Tree of Health and Hope, a display of patient testimonials of how access to care is making a difference and improving lives in our community. The evening also includes a Silent Auction of gifts, along with a Live Auction of key items. It is an opportunity to see the value of the services the clinic offers to the patients. Enjoy especially selected hors d’oeuvres and fabulous catering from Four Seasons. Clinic tours will be hosted by Volunteers offering a unique insight to how passionate medical and support professionals share their time and talents. You will quickly see why they have a ‘calling’ to serve in a local faith-based mission, the Health and Hope Clinic.

All proceeds benefit the Health and Hope Clinic, a free and charitable clinic serving the uninsured and medically underserved in Escambia County, Florida. Sponsorships, both personal and corporate, are essential to the success of Christmas at the Clinic. The opportunities to support Christmas at the Clinic range from in-kind donations of goods or services to monetary donations/sponsorships. The Health and Hope Clinic “provides health and hope to the hurting” offers quality primary medical and dental care services.

About the Health and Hope Clinic – The Health and Hope Clinic, established in 2003 by the Pensacola Bay Baptist Association, continues to meet the needs of the uninsured and medically underserved in our community. The Health and Hope Clinic provides quality medical care to uninsured residents of Escambia County. As a free and charitable clinic we receive financial and operational support through the generosity of individuals, businesses, philanthropic foundations and competitive grants. As of July 2017, 253 local medical professionals and support volunteers share their time and talents to provide free health care services. Since 2003, Health and Hope Clinic has provided over $21,414,142.00 in healthcare services and over 38,296 patient/provider visits. There are currently two locations in Pensacola, Olive Road and Blount Street. The clinic’s goal is to provide quality health care services for qualified individuals. Health and Hope Clinic relies on the generosity of its contributors and volunteers to accomplish its mission of “providing health and hope to the hurting”.
