ECSD NEWS RELEASE

Feb. 23, 2017

Announcements

Recognition during the February School Board Meeting – Photos are available on Facebook on the Escambia Schools Public Relations page.

- Newly Selected ECSD Teacher of the Year: Lacey Brown, a third grade teacher at Jim Allen Elementary School was introduced during the meeting. Her selection as the 2018 Teacher of the Year was announced recently at the Golden Apple Dinner hosted by the Escambia Public Schools Foundation. During the Board meeting, she received a plaque from the Board.
- Black History Month: A presentation was made by Christian Stanley a 5th grade student from A.K. Suter Elementary School. He has participated in the Escambia County history fair the past two years in the performance category. This year he won first place in the elementary individual performance category with his performance entitled, "Mr. John Sunday, Jr., The Richest African American Entrepreneur in the South!" He also received recognition from the West Florida Genealogy Society for his use of genealogical records in his research. There is video of his presentation on the Escambia Schools Public Relations page on Facebook.
- Stellar Employee for the Month of February: Mr. Carl Dunmore serves our district as the only custodian assigned to the Spencer Bibbs Center and has been employed with the school district for one and one-half years. The Spencer Bibbs Center is a large complex not only housing two substantial departments; Title I and Professional Learning, but it is also the main training center for the school district. This means there can be up to 470 additional people on campus any given day. This requires lots of extra clean-up for all the training rooms in addition to Mr. Dunmore's regular work routine. And yet, he single handedly maintains the building with meticulous detail and does so with a spirit of willingness that is unsurpassed, refusing to go home until the building is spotless. It did not take long for everyone at the Spencer Bibbs Center to notice Dunmore's amazing attitude of helpfulness and thorough attention to detail. Mr. Carl Dunmore personifies the pillars of "people" and "service".

Please explore, find the variety of pages, then show your support by clicking LIKE on the ones you like and SHARE posts that interest you, so your friends will discover all of the great news that is available every day in ECSD Schools!

Your Event Could Be Featured HERE!!!

Send the basic information to kstefansson@escambia.k12.fl.us – which school, name of the event, date, time, a description, any other important details like ticket prices, and a POC (Point of Contact). Information is added to the District's calendar and then goes out by email to our internal audience as well as local media. Help ECSD PRC help you tell your story or promote your event! Also, after the event, please remember to send a couple of your favorite photos (with captions) and a short write up so it can be featured on Facebook on the Escambia Schools Public Relations page. Your wonderful event could inspire others, so please share!!!

Media queries about Escambia County School District topics should be directed to Kim Stefansson, at 850-469-6219 or kstefansson@escambia.k12.fl.us. Like ECSD on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ecsdfl
