FemFest 2017 Comes to Pensacola

FemFest 2017 comes to Pensacola. This is an event celebrating intersectional feminism all over the Pensacola community. Events begin Thursday, February 9th and end Friday, February 11th. FemFest is pleased to name Lakeview Center's Rape Crisis and Trauma Recovery Program as its 2017 beneficiary. All proceeds raised during FemFest will go directly to providing resources to this well deserving program.

FemFest Lineup

Thursday, February 9th

Feminist Film Screening and STRIVE Panel
First City Art Center, 1060 N. Guillemard St.
6:30 – 9:45 PM

Join us for a screening of two short feminist films as well as a panel discussion made up of transgender speakers, advocates and experts on feminist theory. The topic will be the relationship between trans women and feminism.

Friday, February 10th

Womanhood in Lavender chizuko, 506 W. Belmont St.
8:00 PM – Until

Presented by the Black Women Empower Collective, Womanhood in Lavender is a night of singing, poetry, dancing, and visual art centering around black women and their diverse lived experiences. This event is 18 and up.

Saturday, February 11th

Eve Ensler's Vagina Monologues
Artel Art Gallery, 223 Palafox Pl.

FemFest 2017 will present a benefit performance of Eve Ensler's award winning play, The Vagina Monologues. These funny and often poignant stories will be told by a group of local women in the beautiful space at Artel. Featured at the performance will be an art sale with many pieces from local artists, ranging from pottery to hand lettering to oil on canvas. Beer and wine will be available with a donation and tickets will be $10 at the door. Tickets may be pre-ordered by donating $15 or more to www.gofundme.com/35pp5zk.
