Help Waterfront Transform Lives this Thanksgiving

Waterfront Rescue Mission is looking for your help. This Thanksgiving, Waterfront Rescue Mission will host needy people for our Thanksgiving Banquet. But we need the public's help to make it happen! Waterfront has experienced a budget shortfall recently, but the poor and hungry we serve still have needs that must be met.

Waterfront Rescue Mission's Annual Thanksgiving Banquet is 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 23, at both Waterfront Rescue Mission in Pensacola and Mobile. Anyone hungry or alone is invited to attend. In Pensacola, we will serve over 1,000 meals to the needy, both at our Mission campuses, as well as with delivered meals to clients of Council on Aging and Westminster Village.

For volunteers wishing to help Waterfront Rescue Mission in serving the needy this Thanksgiving, we have volunteer help lines open now:

- Pensacola location: 850-429-0656
- Mobile location: 251-433-1847

Anyone who wishes to donate towards the meal or Waterfront Rescue Mission's ministry year round:

- Make monetary donation at waterfrontmission.org.
- Drop off or mail gift cards to grocery stores or wholesale clubs- 380 W. Herman St., Pensacola, FL, 32505 or at 279A N. Washington Ave., Mobile, AL, 36603.
- Drop off turkeys, hams, dinner rolls, or large cans of green beans or corn at either Mission location.
