

Input Requested for Upcoming Academic Year Calendars
Survey Participation Encouraged for 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, 2022-23
Calendars

Pensacola, FL: The Escambia County School District is seeking input from students, parents, teachers, employees, community members, and other stakeholders as work begins to develop the proposed academic year calendars for upcoming school years.

Families and District employees will receive a phone call from Malcolm Thomas, Escambia County School Superintendent, this evening 9/22/17 at 5:30 p.m. with a recorded message about the survey process.

In the message, Thomas will say, "I encourage you to participate in this process by reviewing the draft proposals and taking a brief survey regarding each proposal. Survey results will be analyzed and shared with the District Calendar Committee, comprised of representatives from all stakeholder groups."

The committee's final recommendation for the 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22, and 2022-23 Academic Year Calendars will be on the agenda for the November 14, 2017, Regular School Board Meeting.

The survey links, along with each draft proposal, is located on the Escambia County School District website main page at: www.escambiaschools.net. The survey links will close on 10/3/17.
