

Self-Regulation Matters

Montessori School of Pensacola is hosting two free presentations for parents geared to different age-groups

Join us:

January 26th

Talk for parents of Elementary & Middle School- held at Montessori Drive Campus at 6pm

January 31st

Talk for parents of toddlers, Preschool, & Kindergarten- held at 12th Avenue Campus at 6pm

Self-Regulations Matters!

We are offering two talks that are free and open to the public. The talk on January 26th will cater to parents with children of Elementary and Middle School-aged children and the talk on January 31st will cater to parents with toddlers, Preschool, and Kindergarten children.

Some points that will be covered:

- Giving emotion management
- Reactivity as a parent
- Modeling self-control
- Modeling waiting, being patient
- There will be a Q&A and take-away items

TO REGISTER, VISIT:

https://self_regulation_jan26th.eventbrite.com

https://self_regulation_jan31st.eventbrite.com

The presentations will be given by: Dr. Jodi Swanson, Arizona State University faculty member who specializes in child development, with an emphasis on emotional and social skills and academic success and parent of two boys.