Pensacola Chamber to Host Legislative Luncheon on March 2nd

Annual event to highlight legislative priorities, feature keynote speaker

PENSACOLA, Fla. – January 26, 2017 – In its continuing effort to represent current business interests in public policy and legislative affairs, the Greater Pensacola Chamber will host its 2017 Legislative Luncheon on Thursday, March 2nd, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., at Skopelos at New World, 600 S. Palafox St.

Come mingle with area elected officials and learn about the Chamber’s legislative priorities for the 2017 session. This year’s luncheon will feature a change in format, including a prominent keynote speaker to be announced in the coming weeks.

“As a part of the Chamber’s effort to feature informative and provocative speakers, we are finalizing details to bring in one of Florida’s leading political influencers,” said Todd Thomson, Vice President of Public Affairs. “We believe our audience will really enjoy the perspectives provided at this year’s luncheon.”

The event is open to the public and tickets are now available on the Chamber’s website.

About the Greater Pensacola Chamber

Founded in 1889, the Greater Pensacola Chamber is driven to create a climate of growth and success, to ensure economic prosperity and to enhance the quality of life in Greater Pensacola. The Pensacola Chamber Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, oversees Leadership Pensacola and Vision 2015, a five-year plan for job creation that met its goal of creating 3,000 high-wage jobs two years earlier than promised. Both take a strategic approach to regional growth and community building with the goal of building a healthier, better-educated workforce; continuing to advance the region’s economic positioning; and improving community infrastructure.
