Photographer Dottie King Speaks at Gallery 88

Thursday, November 10, 5-7pm, WUWF Studios

The current exhibit of work by local photographer, Dottie King will be closing soon. King will speak at a closing reception for Inspired By: A Contemporary Interpretation. Borrowing from greats, King re-imagines classic works with subtle reinterpretations - a tweak of ethnicity, setting, lighting or facial expression - these shifts can be both playful and subversive.

The exhibit remains open to the public weekdays during business hours through Thursday, November 10, at the WUWF Studios on the campus of the University of West Florida, Bldg. 88. All are invited to a closing reception Thursday, November 10, 5-7pm. King will speak about her work at 6 pm.

Ed Gerhard Holiday Concert

Thursday, December 8, 6 pm, Old Christ Church

Well known to area fans as the most frequent musician appearing on WUWF's long-running RadioLive program, Gerhard returns in December to perform a program of his soulful arrangements of seasonal music. The Grammy award winning soloist will be performing on 6-string, 12-string, slide guitar or Acoustic Hawaiian Lap Slide. Gerhard captivates his audiences with virtuosity, generosity and sly humor. Known for his gorgeous tone and compositional depth, Gerhard can move a listener with a single note.

Begin your holiday season with this inspiring concert in the beautiful Gothic Revival setting of Old Christ Church, 405 S. Adams, Pensacola. Seating in the intimate venue is limited and there will be only one performance at 6 pm, Thursday, December 8. E-tickets, $10 are available online at wuwf.org.

More information on all things WUWF can be found at wuwf.org or 850.474.2787.
