PENSACOLA, FL, October 12, 2016 – Register now and make your miles count for Alzheimer's patients and families in Escambia and Santa Rosa Counties. Join Covenant Alzheimer's Care at the Covenant Walk for Alzheimer's presented by The Hardy Family and The Poarch Band of Creek Indians, Saturday, November 12, 8:00 a.m. at Seville Square in Downtown Pensacola.

Participants and teams can register for FREE at www.choosecovenant.org. Registration includes a three mile walk to raise awareness for Alzheimer's disease and family-friendly party including food, drinks, music by members of Crosstown Band, children's activities, vendors and team awards. Any participant raising at least $10 will receive a t-shirt.

Funds raised through the Covenant Walk for Alzheimer's stay local in Escambia and Santa Rosa counties. These funds enable Covenant Care Alzheimer's Services to educate area caregivers and the public on various components of Alzheimer's disease, provide memory screenings, offer support and education groups, respite care, counseling and access to free tracking devices for wandering patients through Project Lifesaver.

Make your miles count and participate in the Covenant Walk for Alzheimer's by registering at www.choosecovenant.org or call (850) 438-9714.
