

HIRING TALENT:

Getting the Right People in the Right Seats in Your Organization

TUESDAY, MARCH 7

8:30 A.M. - Noon

COST: $89

Pensacola Little Theatre
400 S. Jefferson St.

With Kristine Rushing

Beck Partners Chief Operating Officer

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN:

- The return on investment of a good hiring process
- The cost of employee turnover
- The four-part selection and retention process
- How to pre-screen with Standards of Behavior
- How to conduct a successful interview and select the right person for the right job
- Behavioral interviewing and STAR model
- How to conduct a peer interview

Bonus Legislative Update

Big or Small Company What You Need to Know for 2017

In addition to the main workshop, you will benefit from a bonus legislative update. Employment law expert Amie Remington, general counsel for LandrumHR, will share valuable information on important federal and state legislative changes for 2017, as well as the practical, day-to-day implications of the changes and their impacts on your business.

Amie Remington

General Counsel of LandrumHR

STUDER™
COMMUNITY INSTITUTE

STUDER COMMUNITY INSTITUTE

training and development is beneficial to all leaders, including leaders new to their role and those interested in developing their skills to take on new challenges and responsibilities.

REGISTER ONLINE:

studer.org/training-development/upcoming-events

QUESTIONS? Call Rachael Gillette, (850) 748-5656, Email, rgillette@studer.org