Summer Concert Series Raises Thousands for Music Education and Therapy

PENSACOLA, FL, September 26, 2016: Blues Angel Music's Blues on the Bay summer concert series raised $4,503 for the Blues Angel Music Foundation. The money was raised mostly through sales of raffle tickets for The Foundation's Grand Raffle, but also through t-shirt and concession sales during each of the eight concerts. An additional $1,000 was raised and donated by George and Suzi VanDyke at their annual God Bless America Music Lover's Jam on September 11th.

The concert series, a showcase of Gulf Coast talent which just concluded its 3rd season, began on May 1st with a performance by the band Modern Eldorados. Other shows in the series included Petty Cash on May 22nd, Still Standing on June 5th, Robert Wayne on June 26th, Crowned Jewelz on July 17th, Boukou Groove on August 7th, The Reunion Band on August 21st, and Not Quite Fab on September 18th – a make-up date for their rained-out September 4th scheduled show.

Held at the Hunter Amphitheater at Community Maritime Park, the concert series was free and open to the public thanks to sponsorships from title sponsor, Blues Angel Music, City of Pensacola Parks and Recreation, Community Maritime Park Associates, WSRE Studio Amped, Jet 100.7 FM, Soft Rock 94.1 FM, Magic 106.1 FM, Nash 102.7 FM, News Talk 1370 AM, Cox Media, Cat Country 98.7 FM, and News Radio 1620 AM.

About the Blues Angel Music Foundation
