Bayview Senior Center to host a Bring Your Own Lunch Concert May 17th

Bring your lunch and enjoy a free concert at Bayview Senior Center on Tuesday, May 17th from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. featuring folk, gospel, and country singer/songwriter Goldie Lahr.

Lahr plays a variety of instruments that include guitar, piano, and violin. At age 5, she began singing in her church, and since then has performed at countless places including The Arlington Music Hall in Texas, The Paramount in OKC, and many art and Music festivals across Texas and Oklahoma.

Lahr has provided therapy through music to over 100 assisted living centers, memory care units, and hospitals across the country, and loves to bring her music to preschools and day cares.

Participants should bring their own lunch, however drinks will be provided. The concert will be held in the Bayview Senior Center auditorium. We are encouraging seniors to attend but anyone is welcome. Please R.S.V.P. to Bayview Senior Center by Friday, May 13th by calling (850) 436-5190.
