New Spring Menu at Jackson's Steakhouse

With spring upon us, on Friday, April 15, Jackson's Steakhouse introduces its new dinner menu for the season with distinctive yet classic twists on a number of dishes, including appetizers and entrées.

"In addition to our most memorable meat cuts and our time-honored Steakhouse classics, I aspire to introduce lighter signature dishes by using seasonal agriculture, championing Gulf seafood, and applying a series of complementing simple flavors. With this new season, it's time to celebrate flavors of the coast – steakhouse style," says Chef Irv Miller.

For starters, try some of our new appetizer additions, steakhouse lumpia featuring slow-cooked beef and potato spring rolls, Florida slaw, and Dixie relish; a gulf oyster BLT with Benton's bacon, local greens, grilled Roma tomatoes, and house rémoulade and Serrano ham carpaccio with arugula, Jo's mustard sauce, Quincy mushroom salad, and shaved Parmesan Reggiano.
