TICKETS ON SALE NOW FOR LIFE'S A DANCE
*FEATURING DANCING WITH THE STARS CAST

PENSACOLA, FL, April 27, 2016 – Tickets are on sale now for the 9th Annual Life's a Dance presented by the Pensacola Fred Astaire Dance Studio on Friday, June 17, 2016, 7:00 p.m. at the Pensacola Saenger Theater. This star-studded evening of dance features local celebrities and cast members from ABC's hit television series Dancing with the Stars, including Tony Dovolani.

Tickets are available at three price levels for $35, $50 and $75; a limited number of VIP tickets will be on sale for $150. Following the show, VIP ticket holders will be invited to an exclusive casting party that will take place in the Saenger's beautiful mezzanine and ballroom, where they will eat, drink and mingle with the stars. Tickets may be purchased at the Pensacola Saenger Box Office or online at ticketmaster.com.

Included in the night full of celebrity dancers, local celebrities will be performing a variety of dances from the tango to the two-step in addition to their fundraising competition. Stay tuned for the full line-up of your favorite local celebrities coming soon. Also, taking center stage will be event hosts WEAR TV-3 news anchor Sue Straughn and Brent Lane, Cat Country 98.7 Personality.

All proceeds from Life's a Dance will benefit the unfunded and non-reimbursed hospice programs offered by Covenant Care, including children's support, bereavement support, spiritual care and charity care.
