Help The Blue Wahoos and Whataburger Support USO Northwest Florida

Donated items will be accepted at all home games in May.

PENSACOLA, Fla., - For Military Appreciation Month, the Pensacola Blue Wahoos and Whataburger are teaming up for a third year to collect donations for USO Northwest Florida. Donations will be collected during the Blue Wahoos' home games during the month of May. The USO will deliver the items directly to the troops currently serving the United States.

Fans who donate during the drive will receive a coupon for a free Whataburger. Donations can be dropped off at the entry gates.

The Blue Wahoos, Whataburger and the USO are asking for specific items during each homestand. The dates and requested items are as follows:

May 4th-8th vs. Biloxi Shuckers

Individually wrapped salty and sweet snacks such as pretzels, cookies, peanut butter crackers, etc.

May 14th-18th vs. Mississippi Braves

Single-serve microwavable snacks such as mac and cheese, ramen noodles, ravioli, etc.

May 25th-29th – vs. Birmingham Barons

Center supplies such as copy paper, dish soap, batteries, paper towels, etc.

All Home Games – Bottled Water

ABOUT WHATABURGER:

Whataburger has focused on its fresh, made-to-order burgers and friendly customer service since 1950 when Harmon Dobson opened the first Whataburger as a small roadside burger stand in Corpus Christi, Texas. Dobson gave his restaurant a name he hoped to hear customers say every time they took a bite of his made-to-order burgers: "What a burger!" Within the first week, people lined up around the block for his 25 cent, 100 percent beef burgers served on five-inch buns. Today, the company is headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, with more than 790 locations in 10 states with sales of more than $2 billion annually. Visit www.whataburger.com for more information.

Check out the company on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram and follow them on their most recently launched channel, Snapchat, @WhataburgerLife.

ABOUT USO:

The USO strengthens America's military service members by keeping them connected to family, home and country, throughout their service to the nation.
