Rick McClanahan Joins Hancock Bank as Pensacola Business Banker New VP to help create business opportunities across Panhandle

Rick McClanahan
Hancock Bank Vice President

PENSACOLA, Fla. (May 4, 2016) — With nearly 10 years of small business banking experience in the Florida Panhandle, Rick McClanahan has joined Hancock Bank in Pensacola as a vice president and business banker.

“Working with small businesses and helping business owners make sound financial decisions have been an important part of my career,” said McClanahan. “I am pleased to bring my one-to-one personal service to Hancock Bank and to continue working with companies and business owners as an advisor.”

Based at the downtown Hancock Bank location on West Garden Street in Pensacola, McClanahan will help business clients understand and mitigate risk management, cash flow management, and business loan structures.

Prior to joining Hancock Bank, McClanahan was a small business banker at Bank of America. He is active in the Rotary Club of Pace, Florida. Additionally, he has served as an ambassador for the Greater Pensacola Chamber of Commerce and has volunteered with Manna Food Bank, the Bay Area Food Bank, and the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.

The Milton, Florida, resident earned a bachelor’s degree in science from Northwest Florida State College in Niceville, Florida. He also served in the United States Air Force for six years, based in Charleston, West Virginia.
