VOLUNTEERS NEEDED AT THE GEM BOUTIQUE

PENSACOLA, FL, May 20, 2016 – Don't miss the opportunity to volunteer at the most exciting, fun boutique in town, The GEM! The Gem is offering a chance to get involved, whether you are creative, like to show off your muscles, love retail therapy or just want a way to give back to your community, this opportunity is for you.

The Gem is looking for volunteers to fill a wide range of exciting jobs for its upcoming summer sale. No training is required and volunteers of all skill levels, strength and ability are needed.

A few of the volunteer opportunities at The Gem include beautifying the boutique, staging merchandise, sorting and pricing donated items, polishing silver, spray painting, moving furniture, picking up donations and providing customer service for the upcoming sale scheduled for June 10-12.

To volunteer at The Gem contact Keelea LeJeune at (850) 208-7138 or keelea.lejeune@choosecovenant.org.

The GEM is a donation based, volunteer driven boutique by Covenant Care, which hosts quarterly sales. The GEM boutique features a large variety of vintage and upscale items such as antiques, china, clothing, jewelry, handbags, furniture, home accessories, collectibles and artwork of all kinds. All proceeds received at each sale support programs and services for patients and families under the Covenant Care family. Next public sale is June 10-12, 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at 1901 North Palafox St, Pensacola, FL. Like us at www.facebook.com/ShopTheGem.
