Economics column by Phyllis K. Pooley Is Northwest Florida heading for another housing bubble?

Pensacola, Fla. – June 22, 2016 – In a new column, Phyllis K. Pooley, director of special projects at the Office of Economic Development and Engagement at the University of West Florida, discusses how home prices have fared since the Great Recession of 2007-09. She examines whether the region is heading toward another housing bubble. Pooley's article can be accessed through the UWF Center for Research and Economic Opportunity website.
