Eakin Named Director of Perioperative Services at Sacred Heart

Sherry Eakin, DHA, MSN, RN, has been named director of perioperative services at Sacred Heart Hospital Pensacola. Eakin has more than 30 years of progressive adult and pediatric surgical services experience, including delivery of high-quality patient care, ensuring physician satisfaction, budgeting, team building, customer service and excellence, communication and leadership.

Eakin is originally from Shreveport, La., where she served in many staff, educator and leadership roles primarily within perioperative services. Her most recent position as director of surgical services was at Children's Health in Dallas, Texas.

Eakin earned a master of science degree in Nursing from the University of Loyola and a doctorate of Healthcare Administration from University of Phoenix. She is a member of the Association of Perioperative Registered Nurses (AORN) and the American Society of PeriAnesthesia Nurses. A published leader, she is co-writer of the AORN Periop 101 Pediatric Module.
