John Sunday House Final Judgement

City of Pensacola has received the court's final decision in the ARB/John Sunday House case.

The Court agreed with the City Attorney's position as presented in her Memorandum of Law in which she wrote, "Tabling the meeting does not toll the clear requirement for the Board to act within the thirty-one (31) day period as prescribed by Section 12-13-3."

The Court concluded the decision by directing the city to issue a permit for demotion for the property. The final judgment and other associated documents are available here.
