

The Fish House presents Barlympics 2016
Sunday, August 7

With the 2016 Summer Olympics - officially known as the Games of the XXXI Olympiad - opening on Friday, August 5, serving as the inspiration, The Fish House is proud to announce Barlympics I on Sunday, August 7, from 2:00-5:00 p.m.

Barlympics will feature bartender-athletes from local bars and restaurants in a series of events that highlight every aspect of being a bartender including speed, accuracy to taste, determination, presentation, and flair. This year's teams include 5 ½, Blend, Fish House, Five Sisters Blues Café, Taco Mez, Hub Stacy's, Seville Quarter, Ticket Sports Bar, and Union Public House.

The events will feature a variety of challenges that can only be accomplished through a well-rounded bar team. The opening ceremony will begin at 2:00 p.m. with the lighting of the torch. Each of the events will take place on The Fish House Deck Bar with judging and scoring by local celebrity athletes, including Domenik Hixon, former NFL wide receiver, two-time Super Bowl Champion, and owner of Super Bowl Fishing (superbowlfishing.com); Beej Davis, Center Supervisor at USO Northwest Florida and host of "It's About Town with Beej Davis" on Blab TV; Fred Robbins,
