Blues on the Bay Finale Concert featuring A Beatles Movie Tribute with Not Quite Fab

Summer is winding down and the City of Pensacola is getting geared up for the season finale of the 2016 Blues Angel Music Blues on the Bay concert series at Community Maritime Park on Sunday, September 4 at 6:00 p.m.

Pensacola's own Beatles tribute band, Not Quite Fab will be performing songs from Beatles movies. Plus they are bringing on some very special guests to co-host including Paul Stadden as Ed Sullivan and James DeStafney as Gene Simmons.

Plus, the Blues Angel Music Foundation will be drawing for the winners to their Grand Raffle with over $10,000 in prizes that have been donated by the music store's vendors. Prizes for the raffle include a Yamaha Pacifica 311 HRM Guitar, P115 Digital Piano, DTX450 Electronic Drum kit and much more. Tickets are 1 for $5 or 5 for $20 and available in store and at the concert. All proceeds will go to the Blues Angel Music Foundation to support music education and therapy in the Pensacola area.

The Blues Angel Music Blues on the Bay Concert Series is a production of the City of Pensacola and Community Maritime Park in conjunction with Blues Angel Music. Admission is free thanks to the series sponsors Blues Angel Music, WSRE-Studio Amped, Cat Country 98.7 FM, News Radio 1620 AM, Cox Media, Soft Rock 94.1 FM, Nash 102.7FM, Magic 106.1 FM, News Talk 1370 AM, and Jet 100.7 FM.

The series runs each summer at the Hunter Amphitheater in Community Maritime Park and features free concerts on Sundays when the Blue Wahoos are playing away games.
