

For immediate release:

Pensacola, FL – August 22, 2016 – Dalrymple | Sallis Architecture is pleased to announce their design of the Coldwater Gardens Pavilion in Milton, Florida was ranked as one of the “Top 10” buildings in the 2016 AIA Florida People’s Choice Competition announced during the association’s annual convention at the end of July. More than 283,000 votes from 48 states and 57 different countries around the world were recorded in this, the third annual competition.

The competition highlights the work of Florida’s architects, who are skilled professionals that help meet the needs of communities through innovative building design. A total of 39 buildings around the state were included in the contest for 2016, and voting was open for a total of four weeks.

Dalrymple | Sallis Architecture is a full-service architectural firm specializing in commercial buildings and custom residences. Based out of Pensacola, Florida, principals Scott Sallis, AIA and Dean Dalrymple each have more than 25 years experience in architecture, interior design, and master planning. The award winning firm produces outstanding work in an open studio environment and provides a collaborative, hands-on approach to every project.

The Top 10 buildings ranked by public vote are:

1. Moxie Kitchen + Cocktails, Jacksonville, Designed by A13-Atlanta.
2. St. Peters Anglican Church, Tallahassee, Designed by Touchstone Architecture and DodStone Group Architects.
3. Patriot Plaza at Sarasota National Cemetery, Sarasota, Designed by Hoyt Architects.
4. UF Health Jacksonville North, Jacksonville, Designed by Gresham, Smith and Partners.
5. Jessie Ball duPont Center, Jacksonville, Renovations designed by KBJ Architects.
6. UF J. Wayne Reitz Union, Gainesville, Designed by Cannon Design with Walker Architects.
7. Coldwater Gardens Pavilion, Milton, Designed by Dalrymple Sallis Architecture.
8. Savion Park Apartments, Gainesville, Designed by Skinner Vignola McLean, Inc.
9. St. Ann Rooney Hall, Naples, Designed by David Poorman Architect LLC, in collaborations with Victor Latavish, AIA and Maureen Minker.
10. Innovation, Science & Technology Building at Florida Polytechnic University, Lakeland, Designed by Santiago Calatrava, FAIA with Alfonso Architects- Architect of Record.

