Kagan Jenkins Joins Council on Aging of West Florida as Development Coordinator

PENSACOLA, Fla. (August 23, 2016) – Kagan Jenkins has joined Council on Aging of West Florida as Development Coordinator. Jenkins, a native of Virginia, has experience in event planning, grant writing, and donor solicitation and retention. As development coordinator, Jenkins is responsible for charitable giving, outreach efforts to increase awareness of private-pay programs, and major special events.

Prior to working at the Council on Aging, Jenkins was the donor relations manager at United Way of Escambia County. Jenkins is a summa cum laude graduate of Auburn University with dual baccalaureate degrees in communication and history. She serves as an ambassador for the Greater Pensacola Chamber and is involved with Association of Fundraising Professionals.

Council on Aging of West Florida is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization that has served seniors and their families since 1972. Council on Aging of West Florida helps seniors in Escambia and Santa Rosa Counties live healthy, safe and independent lives in their own familiar surroundings by providing community based, in-home programs and services such as Meals on Wheels and Alzheimer's respite care.
