Straight No Chaser To Return to Pensacola by Popular Demand with “I’ll Have Another” 20th Anniversary World Tour

PENSACOLA, Fla. – Atlantic Records recording group Straight No Chaser will return to Pensacola by popular demand on Tuesday, November 1, 2016 at 7:30 PM at the Saenger Theatre. Tickets for STRAIGHT NO CHASER go on sale to the public on Friday, August 12 and will be available for purchase at the Saenger Theatre by visiting Ticketmaster.com, or by calling 1-800-745-3000. Tickets for this performance are $78.50, $55.50 and $45.50 plus applicable service charge.

The North American leg of the “I’ll Have Another...World Tour” – which celebrates the 20th anniversary of the a cappella group’s formation in 1996 and first show at Indiana University – begins October 14th at Reno, NV’s Grand Theatre and then continues into 2017 with a January 3rd finale at Kahului, HI’s Maui Arts & Cultural Center.

The “I’ll Have Another...World Tour” follows Straight No Chaser’s most recent release, 2015’s “THE NEW OLD FASHIONED.” The album sees the renowned group bringing their unique touch and inimitable vocal style to a stunning range of contemporary standards spanning The Weeknd’s “Can’t Feel My Face” and Hozier’s “Take Me To Church” to Radiohead’s “Creep” and Bob Dylan’s tender “Make You Feel My Love.” “THE NEW OLD FASHIONED” further features a number of Straight No Chaser’s incomparable medleys, including “Beggin’/Counting Stars” (blending favorites from Frankie Valli & the Four Seasons and One Republic) and “On The Road Again/I Play The Road” (originally by Willie Nelson and Zac Brown Band, respectively).
