FSBDC at UWF presents Lunch-N-Learn: “Protect Your Small Business Property; Know Your Rights”

PENSACOLA, FL — September 13, 2016 — The FL SBDC at UWF is presenting “Protect Your Small Business Property; Know Your Rights” on Tuesday, Oct. 25, from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. You have developed a business name, designed a logo, invented a product, or created a unique service or tool. Now how do you protect it? What steps should you take for obtaining a patent, trademark and copyright? Should you consider an employee agreement or non-disclosure agreement? There are so many things to consider. Let J. Nevin Shaffer, Patent Attorney, Intellectual Property Law Professor, and Florida Board Certified IP Specialist guide you through the "do's" and "don'ts" when it comes to your business venture. Location: FSBDC at UWF, 9999 University Pkwy. For further information, or to register call 850-474-2528 or visit our website (www.sbdc.uwf.edu).

FSBDC workshops, seminars, and conferences provide practical, up-to-date information on business topics ranging from the basics to more advanced business management skills. Instructors include FSBDC Certified Business Consultants, faculty from higher education, government experts, and private-sector professionals.

The FSBDC at UWF is a partnership program with the U.S. Small Business Administration and is a member of the Florida Small Business Development Center Network, a non-profit network of college and university-based centers. The organization provides high quality management counseling, entrepreneurial training, and information access and transfer to area business people, enabling them to maximize their businesses’ growth, competitiveness, and profitability.
