West Florida Healthcare to Present 4th Annual “Women’s Night Out”
Acclaimed Speaker and Author Elizabeth Smart to Deliver Keynote Address at Free Community Event

PENSACOLA, FL – September 14, 2016 – The Women’s Community and Physician Advisory Board of West Florida Healthcare will proudly present “Women’s Night Out” on Friday, October 7, 2016 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at the Saenger Theater in downtown Pensacola. The doors will open at 5:30 p.m. for the free community event.

The keynote speaker for “Women’s Night Out” will be Elizabeth Smart, who first gained national attention at the age of 14 when she was abducted from her home in Salt Lake City and rescued nine months later. Her harrowing experience was one of the most followed child abduction cases of our time. In this captivating message, Elizabeth will share her incredible story of perseverance in the face of unimaginable adversity. In addition to her personal story, Elizabeth will discuss topics such as overcoming extreme adversity, the importance and process of recovery and not allowing your past to dictate your future. Today, Elizabeth is an author, acclaimed speaker and activist on behalf of kidnapping survivors and child victims of violence and sexual abuse. Elizabeth’s abduction and recovery continues to motivate parents, law enforcement and leaders worldwide to focus on children’s safety.

“Women typically spend so much time focusing on their families that they rarely take time for themselves,” said Kendrick Doidge, Vice President for Business and Public Relations at West Florida Healthcare. “Because women are such an Integral part of our community, we wanted to give them an opportunity to learn about the healthcare services available to them as well as to be inspired by a message from our keynote speaker, Elizabeth Smart.”

Other activities during the event will include a catered reception with Elizabeth Smart, health and wellness displays and door prizes.

“Women’s Night Out” is free but registration is required. To register or for more information, call (850) 494-3212.
